2013 Zero Prostate Cancer Run

The Prostate Cancer Research Institute will be hosting the 2013 Zero Prostate Cancer Run – Los Angeles at Dockweiler Beach on July 20, 2013. The race is part of the Great Prostate Cancer Challenge, which is taking place in 38 cities nationwide over 2013 with the mission of raising awareness and funds to provide research and free testing. In 2012, the race series attracted more than 18,000 participants and raised more than $2.1 million for advocacy toward prostate cancer research, provide early detection and spreading education and awareness. The Prostate Cancer Research Institute has requested that fees be reduced for this event.

I THEREFORE MOVE THAT THE BOARD OF SUPERVISORS:

Reduce the permit fee to $50.00, excluding the cost of liability insurance, waive the gross receipts which are estimated to be $49,950, and reduce parking to $5.00 per vehicle for approximately 200 vehicles for the 2013 Zero Prostate Cancer Run – Los Angeles at Dockweiler Beach on July 20, 2013.
